Welcome to Project Gefen.

As you probably know, Gefen stands for “Gezint, Parnasa, Nachas”...

Yet, I have a question for you...

Have you ever known a happily married husband and father, full of life, happy, uplifted...

It looks like everything's going well for him. Until.....

He marries off a child, and all of a sudden he's not the same person any more.

You think to yourself; how come he was always a happy camper...

And now at the best time of his life, when he is supposed to be the happiest...

Entering a new phase in life, marrying off a child...

What could be better?

Yet suddenly, everything has turned around the other way for him? What happened?

Well the answer is, that it didn't all of a sudden happen... It all started when his child was born!

And how could this be?

Well today to answer that question, I have a very special booklet for you that you absolutely MUST read before another day goes by...

Because it explains in great, yet easy to read detail exactly why so many fathers find themselves in this terrible predicament...

On what's supposed to be the happiest day of his life...

It will explain to you, in great detail, with every chart and graph and calculation you need...

So you can grasp exactly what's happening...

And escape this fate...

You will discover what's at the very root of the angst, stress and heartbreak that so many fathers go through...

Why in America today, more than ever before in history, a good father - responsible, caring, hard-working...

Finds himself an emotional wreck on that very special day... on what's supposed to be the best day of his life...

In this booklet your eyes will be opened - in a way you have never seen before - to the real reasons why this unfortunate situation is happening to so many fathers...

And, how it doesn't have to happen to you - how you can be smart, and how you can AVOID all of the anxiety and foreboding...

And instead, truly enjoy that walk down that aisle...

Of your son or daughter's fully self-funded wedding.

Now, we've gone to a great deal of expense to document all this for you into this one easy to read booklet...

And we're making it available to you so you can have your own copy, absolutely free...

Just click the button on this page and we'll email it to you.

And, as soon as you have it, be sure to read the simple calculation we give you on page 9 - It's like finding a winning lottery ticket!

I highly recommend that you get your copy now - at absolutely no cost or obligation...

Before another day goes by...

So you can truly enjoy "Gezint, Parnasa and Nachas" not only on that special day...

But all through your child's journey from infancy to adulthood

And for many years to come...

Just click the button on this page, and read the booklet we're going to send you...

Because when you do exactly as I say, you're going to be alright.

Come and join me on the journey!
